Zinta is a specialist wills and estates and business succession lawyer, with over 20 years experience in this field. This means that she is uniquely positioned to help grieving families with complex legal affairs navigate the most difficult time in their life.

In contrast to traditionally run litigation, Zinta takes a collaborative approach where possible. Zinta is the only dual accredited estates and business law specialist in Queensland and the only one in Australia who is also nationally accredited in mediation and collaborative practice. Zinta is often appointed to act as an independent administrator in difficult estate matters to guide disputed matters to settlement as quickly and as peacefully as possible.

Zinta's expertise lies in:

- Collaborative Practice
- Mediation
- Contested estates
- Complex estate administration

As an expert in her field of practice Zinta is regularly requested to present or chair sessions on Succession/Estate Law topics at Continuing Professional Development conferences for Queensland Law Society, Legalwise, Lexis Nexis and STEP.
